The Saloon is at the bows, you enter into a Scottish Haven, from the Oak panels & dark wood trim, to the Tartan carpeting on the floor and royal blue carpet under the gunwale sides. The Stove is on the port side and Tv Unit on the starboard. A large radiator on the starboard side offer extra heating from the Webasto diesel boiler, 2 Captains chairs and stools adding extra comfort.

The walk-through galley has laminate worktop with hardwood trim, inset Stainless steel sink, set of 4 drawers and cupboards under the worktop & wall cupboard above the Oven and hob. The Vanette oven and hob are built in, and an Inlander 12v fridge

After the galley is the enclosed bathroom, with a $\frac{3}{4}$ bath and shower above, Thetford Cassette C200 toilet and corner vanity unit with inset hand basin. Heating in the bathroom is a small radiator.

Following on, you're in the main bedroom with a fixed double, wardrobe space, overhead lockers above the head of the bed and shelves with baskets at the foot of the bed for those nic-nacs.

Finally, you have the cockpit with and the usual morse control lever, electrical distribution panels, 12v and 230v sockets. Removeable deckboard panels surround the engine for easier access for servicing and repair.
