Walking in the boat from the Trad stern you have the engine key panel and rev counter on the left, and the morse control lever on the right panel. There are more cupboards which house the 230-volt trips, the 12-volt distribution panel and the Power-master Inverter, and a smaller cupboard containing boat paint etc.

Going forward into the boat you have a banister down the rear steps into the bedroom. There is a fixed double crossways bed, having lots of storage on either side, which includes full length wardrobes and 2 drawers. Beneath the bed is a large drawer for storing bed linen. Going forward you have the walk-through shower room with full size shower cubicle, Dometic toilet and a vanity unit with light blue mosaic tiles and upstand. Electric shaver socket and mirror. There are shelves fitted in the same unit offering space for bathroom and cleaning products, with the washing machine fitted below the counter-top.

The Kitchen comes next, with lots of storage with 3 cupboards 6 drawers and a sunken stainless-steel sink & drainer with glass lid, Sunken Hob with glass lid along with Fridge & freezer and plenty of worktop space. Going to the bows you have the built in L-shaped dinette next to the side hatch, offering seating for dining or folds down to make a double bed, with storage below.

Finally, we take you to the saloon with two swivel chairs and matching foot stool, Morso Squirrel Solid fuel stove a concealed radiator and a TV cupboard with built in car radio, and shelves for books, Dvds and ornaments.
