Enter the boat from the stern deck and you have cupboards either side, port side is the electrical distribution cupboard containing Solar panel controller, galvanic isolator, Inverter and space to store Life preservers. On the starboard side locker has storage shelves. Go down the steps step into the well-equipped galley, having oven, Microwave, fridge freezer, hob.

From the galley you have the Pullman dinette seating 4, it also makes a double bed, and has storage below.

Heating in the boat is via a Webasto diesel boiler feeding 3 antique style cast radiators, in the saloon is a diesel fed Bubble stove with a separate fuel tank on the bow deck, less fuss than a solid fuel stove.

Going forward of the dinette there are 2 reclining chairs and a foot stool. On the starboard side under the gunwale is the fitted TV and surround with shelves for DVD's, Cd's etc. On the port side bulk-head is a storage cupboard and 3 shelves for ornaments.

Leading forward is the walkthrough bathroom with full size shower cubicle Thetford Cassette toilet and with circular counter-top ceramic basin. More under gunwale shelving completes the port side bathroom.

Finally, you have the bedroom with a fixed double wand storage below, port side of the bow doors is the wardrobe, and the dressing table with mirrors is on the starboard side. Through the bow doors you have the forward well deck containing the bubble stove diesel tank, complimented with a cratch board & Cover,
